INFERTILITY INFORMATION

As a patient, you are here to see one of our providers for the diagnosis and/or treatment for some infertility issue(s). This is to inform you about what to expect from your insurance company regarding diagnosing and treatment of infertility with our providers.

Most insurance carriers have coverage policies that have exclusions for what they will and will not pay for. Infertility almost always is one of these medical conditions that your insurance carrier excludes as a covered benefit. Only in very limited circumstances, does the insurance company cover the diagnosis and treatment of infertility.

While some insurance carriers say they will cover the diagnosis for infertility, some consider a complete sperm analysis that show low to no sperm as a diagnosis. So any care you may receive after the sperm analysis may be considered as infertility and not covered. You are responsible to pay for anything that your insurance company denies as not a covered benefit.

If you have any questions regarding your coverage and what your insurance company will or will not cover, please contact your insurance carrier directly or your benefits administrator for a better explanation of your benefits. Our office has no way of knowing what your insurance company will cover, until after the claim has been processed with your insurance carrier.

I have read, understand and have agreed to the information provided.

HIPAA NOTICE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

FINANCIAL SERVICE AGREEMENT

The Practice of Urology Associates, P.C. is required by applicable federal and state laws to maintain the privacy of your health information. Protected health information (PHI) is the information we create and maintain in providing our services to you. Such information may include documentation of your symptoms, examinations and test results, diagnoses and treatment protocols. It also may include billing documents for those services. We are permitted by federal privacy law, the Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), to use and disclose your PHI for the purposes of treatment, payment and health care operations without your written authorization.

We will use your PHI during the course of your treatment if the physician determines we will need to consult with a specialist in another area. He will share the information with the specialist and obtain his/her input. We will also use your PHI to contact you by phone, if we need to speak to you about a medical condition, or to remind you of medical appointments. We may use or disclose your PHI to provide you with information about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.  Email

Communications: Information stored on our computers is encrypted; however, most popular email services (e.g., Gmail, Hotmail, Yahoo, etc.) do not utilize encrypted email. As a result, when we send you an email, or you send us an email, the information that is sent is not encrypted. This means a third party may be able to access the information. In addition, once the email is received by you, someone may be able to access your email account and read it. Email is a very popular and convenient way to communicate, so in a modification to the HIPAA act, the federal government provided guidance on email and HIPAA (this information is available at the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services website). The guidelines now state that as long as a patient has been made aware of the risks of unencrypted email, and that same patient provides consent to receive health information via email, then a health entity may send that patient personal medical information via unencrypted email.

As our patient we want you to know that we respect the privacy of your personal medical records and will do all we can to secure and protect that privacy. We also want you to know that we support your full access to your personal medical records. You may refuse to consent to the use or disclosure of your personal health information, but this must be in writing. You may revoke authorizations that you made previously to use or disclose information by delivering a written revocation to our office (except to the extent action has already been taken based on a previous authorization).

You have the right to receive the Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information from our office or visit our website at www.uradenver.com. I acknowledge that I have been given the option to receive a copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices for the practice of Urology Associates, P.C.

BILLING PRACTICES: Our policy is to bill the patient's insurance company for service rendered. However, Insurance coverage is another form of payment but ultimately it is your responsibility to pay for all services rendered. If you do not have insurance, payment is due at the time services are rendered. We will collect any known or estimated co-payments, co-insurance or deductibles at the time of service. Additionally, the responsible party will be billed for services rendered in full, should the insurance company deny coverage due to non-covered benefits, lack of referral, lack of proper reporting of incident/accident or lack of individual coverage, where applicable.

COLLECTION ACTIVITY: Any account balance(s) that are not paid within ninety (90) days from the date of service may be forwarded to a collection agency. If deemed necessary, Urology Associates PC reserves the right to forward the account balance(s) to a collection agency prior to ninety (90) days from the date of service. Any and all phone numbers provided to our office be it residential, employment or wireless, are authorized methods of communication by our office or by a collection agency in regards to any outstanding collection balances. Should litigation be necessary to collect an amount owed, the responsible party agrees to pay all costs of collection including, but not limited to, collection fees, attorney fees, interest and court costs.

PAYMENT FOR SERVICES: For payment of your financial obligation we accept Cash, Check, Visa, MasterCard or Discover.

If you have any questions or concerns, please speak with the billing dept. at (303)733-0662. Please note: It is the patient's responsibility to understand their individual insurance benefits.

I hereby assign to Urology Associates, PC all benefits for medical expenses. I hereby agree to pay any and all charges that exceed or that are not covered by insurance. I authorize the provider named above to release my medical records and all medical information requested by my insurance company.
